IMPROV HAMS VS. POETRY SLAM

Among the chatter and coffee of the place called Molly's Coffee House, the weekly Molly's at Night show will involve the Pleasant Valley Poetical Society (PVPS). The seasoned poets of PVPS have challenged Molly's staff to a contest of rhyme and savoring thoughts versus improvisational ham with a side of corn! Who will win this? Come join the fun at Molly's where script meets improv in a story and the audience gets to play along!
